

May 2012

TATTLER

A woman with blonde hair, wearing a white dress, is shown from the waist up. She is holding a large, silver, curved knife horizontally above her head with both hands. The knife is positioned as if it were a decorative element or a prop. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

BEAUTY
& cosmetic
SURGERY
GUIDE 2012

Everything you need to know about going under the knife

NIPPING ABROAD?

Some surgeons are worth flying for. And what's more, you can jet off for a two-week 'holiday' and no one will be any the wiser when you breeze back into town. By Olivia Falcon

NEW YORK

DR SAM RIZK

The nose king of New York, Rizk is utterly charming and used to dealing with sniffy Upper East Siders. He sees clients from all over Europe, Russia and the Middle East to repair with absolute accuracy nose ops that have gone wrong. In his signature technique, a telescopic wand sussess out the problem without any unnecessary cutting, and a filing instrument smoothes down rough edges of cartilage to achieve a flawless patrician profile.

Consultation, £190; rhinoplasty, from £9,520 (drsamrizk.com or 001 212 452 3362).

